To say that one is publishing an edition of Paradise Lost 1667 is, however, a more complicated statement than one might initially think. On the one hand, the editors assert that they seek to provide "an authoritative text of the 1667 edition" (PL, ix). Yet between 1667 and 1674, Samuel Simmons printed the first edition six times with six different title pages, and each issue has its own variants and errors.
